

Replacement control unit type RP/... for several elderly models

Preserve your production quality into the future!

and others upon request

The replacement unit with the following benefits:

- preserve of already installed and proved equipment with minimal investment
- use of new technology
- contemporary and digital input possibilities
- extension of all today existing functions
- self-rebuilding of controller with modification instructions possible

Technical features:

- 10 weld programmes selectable by using a preselector
- switches for main supply [ON], weld current on [I/on], weld current higher [I/>] and weld current lower [I/<]
- capability of 2 welding times in one cycle, including pre- and post-heating
- 3 different types of weld programming SPOT, STEP, SEAM

Options:

- double-digit preselector for the selection of 30 weld programs (external fastening)
- interlocking with a second controller
- adapter cable with corresponding plugs

To speed up the time for working out a quotation please provide us with the following information: type plate (on the back side of the existing unit), type of existing controller, type of power stage and value of driving voltage (24V, 48V, 110V or 220V).

Requests can be sent to your Schlatter contact person or by e-mail to: spareparts@schlatter.ch

